COMPUTERCORP REBRANDS TO SYNERGY PLUS

New branding better reflects services expansion and national footprint

Perth, Western Australia, November 2 2009 – ComputerCORP (Operations) Pty Ltd a wholly owned subsidiary of ComputerCORP Limited (ASX: CZP) has changed its name to Synergy Plus Operations Pty Ltd, as the technology services company continues its diversified growth strategy. Shareholder approval is being sort by ComputerCORP Limited on the 26 November 2009 for that company to also change its name to Synergy Plus Limited.

The new brand identity is effective from today.

Peter Cappendell, Acting Chief Executive Officer, Synergy Plus, said the adoption of the new brand comes at an exciting time for the company.

“The Synergy Plus brand will allow us to reflect our strategy of combining the enterprise level focus of the Synergy business and the existing diverse solution set of ComputerCORP and building a new national business,” Mr Cappendell said.

“We will provide best-of-breed products, innovative technology solutions and professional service to clients throughout Australia.”

Synergy Plus has more than 270 IT professionals in 11 locations providing services ranging from desktop break/fix all the way to enterprise data centre management, including mid range systems, virtualisation and unified communications. Synergy Plus is also growing its managed services and outsourcing business.

The company has specific expertise in mining and resources, education, finance, manufacturing, defence, utilities, local, state and federal sectors. Synergy Plus represents many of the global ICT manufacturers such as VMware, HP, IBM, Cisco, Symantec, APC and Microsoft.

Mr. Cappendell said the Synergy Plus brand also reflected a more national approach by the Perth-headquartered company.

“Our new approach and brand will be better known and accessible to a wider range of organisations. It will help us on our goal to becoming the country’s premier provider of technology services and procurement.”
